

Lynda Sue Luney

July 23, 1951 - December 18, 2012

Lynda Sue “Loghry” Luney, 61, passed away December 18, 2012. Lynda was born July 23, 1951 to Ruth Marie (Baker) Loghry and Raymond Loghry in Pitcher, OK. Lynda and her husband came to Carthage after her husband retired from the Air Force they have lived here for the past 18 years. Lynda was a home maker and published a book in 2004 titled “Mom, Dad, Rag Mop and Me”, she enjoyed drawing. She leaves behind 3 loyal companions Faze, Chasin and Rapids. Lynda was united in Marriage to Daniel Elbert Luney Jr. March 3, 1977 in Siloam Springs, Arkansas he preceded her February 17, 2010. Lynda is survived by two brother in laws Don Luney of Wentzville, MO and Robert “Dino” Wiggin of Enid OK, Three sister in laws Kathy Gibson of Ozark, Connie Shull of Carthage, MO and Amanda Luney of Van Buren, AR, mother in law Judy Mitchell of Avilla, MO, numerous nieces and nephews. At Lynda’s request there will be no services planned. Online condolences can be made to www.ulmerfh.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Ulmer Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

MS

“ My beautiful friend, may you be with your true love. You were a loving mother to all your "kids". I only wish I could have visited with you before you joined Danny in paradise. When I arrive, we will chat. Thanks for the great memories! Marla XOXO

Marla Scott - September 18, 2013 at 02:47 PM