“Marguerite Lyon taught me it is o.k. as a musician to laugh at myself. She worked tirelessly with me December in 1972. As a junior at CSHS I played for the Carthage Community Presentation of Handel's Messiah of 100 choir members on the 1st Presbyterian pipe organ.....a monstrous three manual Austin organ.

Later when I would come back to Carthage to do concerts at the Methodist Church, she was always there front and center to love on me.

To me,the world just got a little bit darker at her passing. Can't wait to see her in heaven. Right now she is probably telling Jesus some of her best jokes.

“Marguerite was my dad’s niece, but he was only a few months older than her. My dad was the youngest of the 10 kids in the Clark family and Marguerite’s mother, Aunt Lora, was dad’s much older sister and Lora was a twin with Aunt Jean. So dad and Marguerite grew up more like brother and sister. So many stories of their times together. We had a Clark family reunion every summer in August and all of the siblings came back, together with all of their kids and all of their kids, so I feel like we were all part of one great big family! Marguerite was always working on our family genealogy, a much more difficult task back in the 1960’s and 1970’s. We made many trips to Pittsburg, Fort Scott, Carthage to see all of our family. The Ellen name was our Grandmother Clark’s middle name, we have a cousin Ellen and my daughter Katie’s middle name is Ellen! Lots of love and our sincere condolences from the family of Bob and Irene Clark from Bentonville, Arkansas. Your cousins, Susan, Marian and Cathy
