“Joyce was a true Southern Lady. I met her at my sister, Allison's wedding to her son, Robert in Minneapolis Minnesota in 1988. It was an unusually hot day with temperatures in the 90s. She was cool, calm, and collected. Immaculately dressed and helpful despite the heat. She glowed with pride as she watched her son, dressed in full Army uniform attire and his new wife walk down the aisle. The rest of us admired her beautiful aura as the day's events came to a close. She was kindness and calmness personified.

“Lora and Elaine you are in our thoughts and prayers! Your mother was always so gracious and willing to help whenever she could! May both of you and all your family sense God's presence ever close and near in the days to come.
