“ So sorry for your loss. Marilyn always had a joke for me! She also gave me several spiritual items. I still have the painting of a man praying over his Bible. She gave me pics of Jesus and crosses. Miss her, but happy that she'll see the real Jesus!

“ Annette & Teresa: I am so very sorry to hear of this. I remember a lot of great times shared at your home when we were little girls. Your mom was one of a kind. She kept us entertained and Jimmy out of our hair. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time of sadness. Love, Rosella

“ A time of fear, but when you look back as I think you should now & then, it will do you no good to search for heroes or villains. There was not any!! There were only victims, because each of us felt compelled to say or do things we otherwise would not do..I look out to my family sitting there & I realize what I've put them through. It's unfair, so what I say here is not intended to be hurtful to anyone. It is intended to heed
