“ When I worked for Marjorie, her faith showed through in her work decisions. She gave my dog her injections when she became ill-I couldn't make myself do it. (I would bring my dog to work after I got off) She truly loved animals.I was so happy to see her the few times we ran into each other after she left that company. She made the world a better place!

“Margie was such a pleasure to work with over the years. She was a gem. She never counted herself first, she was always there for others. She always helped out someone else first. She loved animals so she chose the perfect career. Margie improved the lives of many pets. Therefore, she improved the lives of many people too! It is hard to find another person like Margie. Many will miss her.”

“ I met Margie when we were both hired at Midwest Veterinary Supply. We were #58 and #59 outside sales reps for the company. We were very close for several years enjoying each other's company at our national sales meetings. As we met and became close to our fellow coworkers, our time became divided, but we always found time to share several meals and stories at the meetings. This past October we talked about her animals, mom, and of course our new role as outside reps and how we could take the best care of our customers. She was a caring individual to her animals, family and her customers. Years ago, I remember she brought her mom to one of our meetings. The three of us walked around the lake on the path as far as it would go! What a nice introduction to her mom, who I just called mom too. I will miss seeing and talking to you, my friend. I know you are not alone in heaven because all your "angel fur friends" that left this world before you, were waiting to guide you and keep you company through your new journey with God. “ Margie was the Manager of Community Bio Resources, and my boss 26 years ago. I was young and just beginning college. She was always fair, kind, smiling, and fun to be around. Obviously we both moved on from those jobs but I never forgot About her or Diana who was the Assistant Manager and one of Margies best friends. I ran into the two of them this past October at a local restaurant and it was so good to see the two them still happy and smiling. That is how I will always remember Margie! I'm sure she's looking down on us all smiling even more so now as she's in heaven and no longer struggling. Rest In Peace Sweet lady, you'll be truly missed.

“ My deepest sympathy to Margie's family during this time of terrible loss. I shared many accounts with Margie over the past 15 years and found her to be very passionate about her family and her position with Midwest. I know I join others in mourning the loss of such a great friend. We are all better for having known her.

“ I worked with Margie for 19 years and she was always so sweet to me and all of the clinics she visited. She had a heart of gold. We had many talks about her dogs, her pet chickens and how many fish she was going to put in her tank. Margie and her mother stopped by and visited me when I had my daughter Katarina in Wisconsin before they when they were on vacation. I will miss her dearly.

“ 💔 I miss you already sweet Margie. Our mutual love of animals is one of the many reasons I treasured and will continue to treasure you. Bible studies together, rescuing kittens and dogs, lunches together and texting back and forth. I still have your text from the day you were being admitted to McCune in December. You ask me to pray I never thought you would be leaving this earthly life so soon.
You Margie Davis are one of the real friends I've had in my life. Your genuine & kind spirit will forever be with me. We will take good and loving care of your chickens 💖
Love ya forever my friend 💖
