

Mark Allen Gilbreath

November 29, 1966 - October 13, 2014

Mark Allen Gilbreath, age 47, passed away Monday October 13, 2014 in his rural Carthage home. Mark was born on November 29, 1966 and graduated from Jasper High School in 1985. Mark was a lifelong member of Faith Lutheran Church. He worked as a cashier for Price Cutter in Carthage where he was loved by both his customers and coworkers. Mark simply loved people: friends, family, coaches, players and customers. His smile and laugh will be missed by all of those who knew Mark. He is preceded in death by his mother Darlene Gilbreath. Mark is survived by his father Frank Gilbreath, his brother and sister-in-law Scott and Tammy Gilbreath, his sister and brother-in-law Lori and Joel Terry, nieces Lindsay Terry, Megan and Lauren Gilbreath all of Carthage. “ Don and I will always remember Mark's smile and genuinely helpful attitude when he waited on us in the check out line or in helping find items in the store. He never begrudged a question or request even when he was busiest. We will truly miss him.
May God take you in His arms and hold you close to His heart to comfort, strengthen and guide you in this difficult journey.
Sincerely,
Roene and Don Blankenship

“ Mark was one of the finest young men I have ever meant. He went to school with my children. He was there for the kids never expecting anything in return. He was loved and will be missed by so many. Prayers for those he has left behind. Susie and Jerry Ogle
