“ I've known Micah for awhile now. He was always goofing around, having a blast whatever he was doing. He was a great man that will be deeply missed. Here are a couple pictures of him being goofy when we would hang out. Fly High, Micah. Prayers to his family!

“ Micah was a good guy. I enjoyed working with him in Rogers, Arkansas. He loved his children deeply and I'm thankful that he had Shena by his side every step of the way. He fought a good fight. Rest in Peace Micah! You're flying high now! Sincerely, Rose Page

“ I wish I had a picture taken together with Micah that I could share here. I remember that Micah was one of the funniest little kids -- he always loved being silly and goofy, with "fart jokes" and such. And my mom (his grandma Jeanie) would never allow that word. I remember him making goofy noises with his armpits, using silly voices like a cartoon character, etc. I remember when he was born I thought it was so cool that Karen & Richard named him after Bible people. I have thought of him literally every time I read any verse from the book of Micah. I called him "Micah Paul" every chance I got, because I loved his name so much. I remember Karen hoping he would make his appearance before New Year's Day 1986, so he could be a tax deduction. It's crazy the things we remember, isn't it? I will always remember grown-up Micah's COURAGE, along with my many memories of his childhood antics. He has shown such bravery and so much grit during these past several years. I pray the Lord will bring comfort and peace to all the family, and I am thankful to know that Micah entrusted his soul to the Savior of the world, our Lord Jesus Christ. I am thankful we will see him again one day in glory, where there is no cancer, ever.
