“ Uncle Mike, I think of you often and miss you so much! I know you're smiling down and watching these babies grow up. I'm thankful I can still hear your laugh and see your pearly whites. You always had a way with telling stories and that friendly laugh that will keep me grinning. I'll never forget how sweet you were to Elaina too and seeing you tearing up watching her sing. You are so special and you made us all feel special too. I'll always cherish our memories. Thank you for everything you taught me and encouraging me along the way. I'm forever proud to call you my Uncle. Love always, Ciarra

“ I am sorry for your loss. My funniest memory is when Mike, Sharon and I went to Walmart and out of the air I asked Mike how do you put the icing in the cake .He never let me live that down
