

Mike Alan Wilkerson

July 30, 1958 - January 24, 2025

Mike Alan Wilkerson, 66, passed away Friday, January 24, 2025, in Jasper County, Missouri. Mike was born on July 30, 1958, to Max Wilkerson and Delores Garner in Carthage, Missouri. He participated in the FFA (Future Farmers of America) in high school, was a state farmer, and was president his senior year, 1975-1976. Mike was a member of Fellowship Baptist Church. He was devoted to Christ and enjoyed going to church every Sunday. He was a Farm Bureau member, president of the Jasper County Farm Bureau for a time, and a Mason. Mike's greatest passion and joy in life was farming and ranching. His favorite place to be was out on his tractor, putting up hay, and his daily cow patrol. Mike was on the Young Farmer and Rancher State Board. He won the Outstanding Farmer and Rancher Award and was so proud when his son, Clint, won the same award thirty years later. Outside of farm life, Mike also enjoyed going to the car races. He worked as a realtor with Woodrum Realty and REMAX Realty. Mike also worked as a Vigortone Mineral salesman. He was very loyal, caring, and generous. Mike loved his children and grandchildren dearly and would do anything for them.

Mike is survived by his son, Clint Wilkerson (Mercedes) of Carthage, Missouri; his daughter, Marcie Mason (Josh) of North Potomac, Maryland; his mother, Delores Wilkerson; five grandchildren, Bristol, Lincoln, T.J., Clara, and Eli; and his brother, Scott Wilkerson.

Mike is preceded in death by his father, Max Wilkerson.
