“ Brittany

I was and forever will be one of Nancy Givens students. This was a woman who was always there for her students, in her last days at SW she was weak and tierd but we still loved her the same. Last year I would stay after class and let her show me pictures of her home decorations and her dog. She would tell me stories about her husband and I would tell her my stories. I will miss her greatly as I'm sure all of you will we lost a great warrior. She will paint the sky with her beautiful aren't skills.
