“ Forever my sister-in-law, sister, friend. You were pure love inside and out. So giving and easily forgiving. I am truly blessed for having known you. I was busy thinking what a mess the Prothro's were and then you showed up with your boys. Forever my family. I pray Kevin and all can endure and recapture the love and joy you were. You will be terribly missed.

“ I would like to say sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. I too have lost loved ones and there is one thing that has always helped me, the Bible. Yes one scripture has been so comforting that I like to share it with others whom I believe would enjoy it also. It is found in Revelation chapter 21:3,4. Please take the time to read it. My condolences once again.

Thanks for listening
