“ Neva was a very good friend to my mother, Marilyn Nicholas. The two of them worked so hard on helping to serve the community through their volunteer work at Crosslines Ministries. My daughters, when they were kids always had to stop to see Neva and Johnny to show off their Halloween costumes. She was a kind, hard working woman with great faith in God. I always felt like she was a member of the family. So grateful to have known her.

“ I loved getting to know Neva on a personal level at 1st UMC Carthage as she sang alto in choir, loved to wield her "spatula" in the kitchen at the dinners, and involved in UMW. My sincere condolences to Amy and Tom.
