“ Norman was my grandfather and I have so many memories but the greatest memories was probably fishing or just working with him on a Saturday to make some extra money. He taught me so much in life. Love yoh paps.

“ Norm was such a mentor and friend to me. We worked together, fished together, talked sports, engineering, etc. Memories of him will live on in the stories we tell to future generations.

“ We walked down Dry Fork Creek in the middle of it, north of Carthage fishing for bass
Went quail hunting with him several times and once he shot one and it fell and hit his dog on the nose. He always had a smile on his face.
