“ I remember the excitement when Linda first introduced and then married Paul. We were privileged to sing at their wedding where her father even clicked up his heels, sharing their joy. We were also privileged to lead Paul and Linda in our small group studies. What loving joy they showed towards each other along with their strong Christian faith. We, along with Linda and his family, will miss Paul in this life, Linda, know that our prayers are with you and the family. Our Lord will bring you the Shalom that only He can bring.
