

Pauline Stafford

July 21, 1911 - November 6, 2010

Pauline Stafford, 99 a long time Carthage resident passed away on November 6, 2010 at St. Luke's Nursing Center. She was born on July 21, 1911 in Carthage, MO. Pauline was the daughter of Charles Casevolt and Gertrude "Crawford" Casevolt. She was a member of the First Church of the Nazarene, Carthage. Pauline was truly one of the gentle people. She always had a smile on her face, an outstretched hand in greeting and ready to converse. Her goal in life was simply to be a good woman. In trying to reach her goal of being a good woman, she became a really great person. Her life was dedicated to her family and to her second profession, being a volunteer at the over 60 center, which she enjoyed for over 35 years. Any effort that was required, she was ready and willing. Pauline achieved somewhat notoriety for her pie making ability (coconut cream was her specialty) and supplied many pies for fund raisers. She was loved by everyone she met and her loving presence will always be missed.

Pauline married Paul E. Stafford on April 7, 1928 in Carthage; he preceded her in death on September 25, 1986. She is also preceded in death by one daughter in 2005, Mary Gordon and one sister Thelma Hunter.

Pauline is survived by one son Don Stafford and one daughter Betty Snider both of Carthage; one sister Betty Cantania of Maryland; five grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Graveside services will be at 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, November 10, 2010 in the Fullerton Cemetery, Carthage. Visitation will be from 6:00-7:30p.m.,

Tuesday, November 9, 2010 at the Ulmer Funeral Home. Reverend Bob Holman will conduct the services. Contributions may be given to the American Cancer Society in care of Ulmer Funeral Home. Arrangements are under the direction of Ulmer Funeral Home.
