“ Wolfman, you were always so much fun! Although I got in on the whole Wolfman experience a little late in the game the times I did see you was always a joy. You made our English visitors feel welcome & gave them an experience like they had never had. It won't be the same without you. I know you are in a better place now & not suffering or hurting. Give them all a good howl for us up there. We will miss you.
