“ The very first time that I met Bobby and Doris was at their house in 2008. I had just started dating Denzil and he took me to meet them. We were sitting on their breezeway visiting and there were several of us. If you knew Bobby, he always had a joke and you knew he was liable to say most anything! Bobby was being Bobby and said something “off color”. I was kind of surprised and Doris looked at me and said “it doesn’t get any better”! And it never did during the 17 years I knew him! Bobby NEVER held back and you always knew where you stood with him! I think the Lord broke the mold when He made him!
I’ll miss him and the good times he, Doris, Denzil and I had over those 17 years!!

“ I absolutely loved my uncle Bobby. He was quite the character but loved unconditionally and was unconditionally loved in return. To Robert Dale and Greg I want to say you had a wonderful Dad growing up. He was very proud of the both of you. I am envious of that. Uncle Bobby, You will certainly be missed but never forgotten. Much, much love to the family!!
