“ Barb and family: I am sorry for your loss. The loss is mine, too. Bob was a good man, one of the strongest Christians I have known. He was an inspiration to me in my Christian walk, as well as my character development. Always ready to help anyone who needed him. Bev and I considered Bob and Barb our closest friends. We shared many good times together. In the National Guard, Bob was a leader and mentor to his subordinates, as well as to junior officers. His example led many young men to do good things. All who knew him have, since his illness, and will miss him.
