“ My fondest memories of Robert was his service at church. Greeting everyone as we came in the door and handing us the program, and ringing the bell for us to end classes and head out. He was very faithful and persistent ringing the bell! If we didn't listen to the bell, Robert would come around the classrooms and give us the throat slashing sign to cut it off!

“ I guess I've known the Pittman family for 65 years or so now. Met them in 1959 when first attending Fidelity School right next to their home. I don't remember a time ever meeting up with Robert down through the years that he didn't have a big grin a friendly greeting.
