“ Bob was a customer of mine. Ill always remember him of his fruits and veggies he'd sell at Eastside in Lamar. He was a comical man. Could always make me smile. He will be missed.

“ We were (and still are)members of Trinity Baptist Church in Bartlesville. Bob was a gracious man, a good preacher, and a wonderful singer. He was pastor when Delmar was battling cancer in 1992 and helped us immensely. We spoke to him at least once a week from Houston, TX, where Delmar was treated. He will be greatly missed. Please accept our condolences.

“ We extend to you our deepest sympathy in Bob's passing, and are thinking of you and the family. Bob married us in a very moving ceremony in 2002. Not a dry eye in the house. Dad also sends his condolences and remembers him from the Guard. Sincerely, Karen and Charlie Myers and William E. "Bull" Bader
