“ I have so many memories to share an laughs we could have gosh we could keep you going. From when we thought we were big time mechanics turning wrenchs on Buddy's race car....ok we would maybe get to put in a rivot or two. Then when we became Big Game hunters that got pulled out of a tree by the game warden over in Sercoxie for baiting dear....hell no one told us there was a corn field behind us....ok may have been more to the story...Lol. Them in Iowa oh my we or I thought we were Pro Golfers oh my still have the clubs in the attic we hacked our way around the golf course like lumber jacks, sad thing Colton was better than I...Always was dang good at that game.

I Wanted to share a few pictures of him when he got his truck " The Black B... " To a Bday and his graduation.

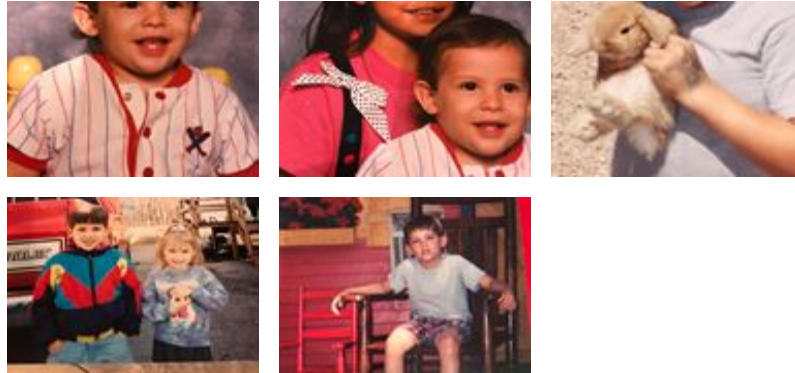

I miss you Son and Love you so much. My heart aches with pain that we will not have a chance to speak once more.....You will always be loved and always I will be so proud of you.

“ I had so many memories with Colton, he was a wonderful friend, me and Colton basically grew up together, I basically lived at his house and I'm sure we always bugged his mom and sister. What I miss most is that me and him would always watch the Oklahoma state vs OU game together and of course he was an OU fan and I was an ok state fan and OU would win every single year and I'd have to hear about it from Colton for about a week straight. They say only the good die young and that was proven when Colton past away, he will be greatly missed. Love ya brother.
