“ Robin was a very caring and loving mother. She gave all of her attention to her children and supported them by being involved in their 4H activities and school and church functions while living in Bailey, Colorado.
Robin was always a good friend and I missed her when she moved to Missouri.
May she rest forever in God's peace.

“ When we were young we had to share a bed . Now she out weight me and the mattress was old. I'd hold on to the side of the bed until I fell into her. She'd kick me back up all night long. Thank goodness for trundle beds. LOL Sis, I'm going to miss our Hands and Foot card game and wondering if you're going to run the 2's. Lord,if you play cards with her, watch for that trick. LU and Miss you.

“ Recently I was able to take my Aunt Robin to play with some clay and knock off one of her items from her bucket list. She laughed so hard and had such a great time. I will cherish that time and this pot forever.

“ I'm not sure why Robin and I had such a connection but it was more than Brenda being my best friend. She was just very easy to love. A wonderful person inside and out and a beautiful example of her faith. I'll miss our chats and swapping pics of the grands. She was so very proud of her family. Praying for God's comfort for you all.

“ When you need a caregiver for your parents, you look for someone who is caring, kind, and someone who is good. We found that with Robin. Caring, kind and good shows who Robin was.

“ I can remember Robin as a little girl. When her Uncle Bob and I would go to visit her mom, Jenna and all the family, Robin was always front and center. She was always smiling. My deepest sympathy to all of Robin's family. She will be missed, but her spirit lives on and she will continue to watch over her family. I am always reminded that when a loved one passes of this poem by Henry Van Dyke:

Gone From My Sight

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship, at my side, spreads her white sails to the moving breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength.

I stand and watch her until, at length, she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.

Then, someone at my side says, "There, she is gone."

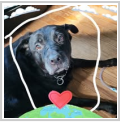

Gone where?

Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast, hull and spar as she was when she left my side.

*And, she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.
Her diminished size is in me -- not in her.*

And, just at the moment when someone says, "There, she is gone," there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!"
