“ I am Sandras' cousin, I had not seen her for many many years, I remember her as an animal lover and she loved little children. My sister Peggy and I moved to Missouri with our parents Muriel and Homer Jones. Sandra was just a little older than us, but she was starting high school, she always had time for us, we really idolized and adored her. We have talked about how kind and good she was to us. She would let us ride her horses, and we would set in the well house and talk for hours, we went for long walks and into Carthage to the roller rink. We will always remember her goodness but are sorry we missed out on so much of her life. Caren Jones Wineland

“ It is hard to loose a Mom, a Friend and a neighbor. When we were new to the neighborhood they both were a help to us. Ken could fix most anything and Sandra had advice for our dogs... I remember most of all Sandra coming over as she was collecting donations for another neighbor who had a need. That takes someone special and one with a caring heart. We are out of town and unable to attend any services but wanted to say she was our friend. Gale and Corky Dow
