“ I am very sorry to hear about Shirley and I want to send my sincere condolences. Steve and I also lost a close family member who was very young and I would like to share with you the comfort that someone gave to us because I know that this is a terribly hard time for you.

Jesus Christ promised: “ Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” (John 5: 28, 29)

Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

"No resident will say: 'I am sick.' "At that time the eyes of the blind ones will be opened, and the very ears of the deaf ones will be unstopped. At that time the lame one will climb up just as a stag does, and the tongue of the speechless one will cry out in gladness." Isaiah 33:24; 35:5, 6.

There will no longer be obituary columns to bring us sadness. Instead, there may well be just the opposite, announcements of newly resurrected ones. But no matter how great the promises are we still miss them!

I included for you an audio link we were given of others who have gone through this and how they were able to be consoled. We really appreciated it and hope it helps you find peace. Their memories we have brings us much comfort as well. I hope we will be able to meet all of you someday! You have my thoughts and prayers!
