“Mr Tom” is what my son called him. He was his favorite counselor at the afterschool Y program. He adored Mr Tom because Tom always had time, words of encouragement and wisdom, and a beautiful smile. He brought laughter and joy to that program. Thank you for sharing him with my son.

“Mr. Tom was an charismatic young man, who was a magnet for our son and all the other Y kiddos! We are so very thankful he had the opportunity to help shape, guide and encourage so many youth. Big prayers of comfort for his family at this very difficult time. May all the wonderful memories bring you peace.

“ Here’s a revised version that flows better, tightens the wording, and keeps the heart exactly where it is:

Tom was an incredible athlete and an even better friend. He wasn’t just the person you called when you wanted to have fun—he was the kind of person who genuinely cared more about everyone else around him before ever thinking of himself. We shared countless memories together, and he beat me in just about every sport we played: bowling, basketball, disc golf, real golf, and so much more.

Tom will be deeply and forever missed.

Gonna miss ya, TIP! ❤️
