

Trace Booker Stephenson

April 14, 2002 - August 7, 2018

Trace Booker Stephenson, 16, passed away suddenly on Tuesday, August 7, 2018. Trace was born April 14, 2002 in Raleigh, North Carolina. The past seven years, he suffered from severe health problems, including Crohn's Disease. Trace was welcomed into Heaven yesterday and is now walking streets of gold. No, sorry . . . he's dancing! Trace loved to sing and dance. No doubt he's already lined up to audition with the Heavenly Choir.

Trace leaves behind his mother and step-father, Kelly and Greg Hook; one sister, Tamara; two brothers, Gabe and Tristen; grandparents, Ron and Donna Bragg, as well as many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Thanks to Carthage High School for their help with his school schedule and his Show Choir Family, led by Brian Hargrave and Katie Crigger. Trace's face always lit up when he was dancing and singing.

Trace will be missed, but not forgotten. And, we have the hope and promise that because he gave his heart to Christ, we WILL see him again soon. May his memory leave a "Trace" of song in everyone's heart!

Visitation will be held from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Thursday, August 9, 2018 at Ulmer Funeral Home. Services will be held at 10:00 a.m. Friday, August 10, 2018 at Ulmer Funeral Home. A celebration of life will be held at 11:00 a.m.

Saturday, August 11, 2018 at Crossroads Baptist Church.

Contributions may be made to the Carthage High School Show Choir in care of Ulmer Funeral Home.

Online condolences may be made at www.ulmerfh.com.

“ When trace and his family were attending Frisco Church I was trying to put together a song with a group of children. I asked if anyone would like to sing a solo and Traces hand shot up. He did a great job and later he asked if I would help him with a song for church and I was so thrilled that a young person wanted to sing for the Lord. He did an outstanding job and I was so proud of him. When I think of Trace I think of a bright, shining light. His smile would light up a room. He was a precious gift. Cheri Myers

“ Trace as a young boy, kept me in stitches. He had his own way in doing things, on the comical side. I took him Christmas Shopping one year while his mother and sister were at a girl social. I told him I was going to purchase him a Christmas gift, to take home with him from the store, it took almost three hours for him to make up his mind, because every toy he wanted but could not decide which one, until finally he settled on what he wanted. After that experience, they say girls take a long time to shop, but in the toy isle, Trace had them all beat... It was a fun time, and I cherish all the times I shared with Trace, Tamara, and Kelly... I will miss Trace, but have peace soon and very soon I will join him in Heaven!
