“ Dear Katherine and Dennis, I loved my red-headed Aunt Virginia and enjoyed visiting her and Uncle Wayne in Carthage through the years. I especially remember all of the fresh vegetables from the garden. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families at this time. God Bless You and yours Love,

“ I always enjoyed seeing Virginia in church. I think we had all been in the Round Table Sunday School Class together a long time ago. She was a lovely pleasant person, but I had not kept up with her in recent years. God bless her and our sincerely condolences to her family. Love, Jacqui and Elliott Potter
