“ To the entire Campbell family - We are so sorry to learn of Scotty's passing. We only met him once, but remember him very well as a kind, thoughtful, and gentle soul, with one of the greatest smiles in the world! May your memories of him sustain you. Kathy Lynn and Joe Casey.

“ My family and I met Scotty and his family and daughter, Missy, at our church. My husband, Rich, traveled often and we had only one vehicle. Scotty heard about this and told me to come to C&C Ford and he would loan me a vehicle for the weekend. And every weekend Rich was gone, Scotty made sure I had a vehicle--AND he refused to let me pay him for the car. Sometimes it was a new car. I didn't mind driving that car, but the kids thought it was the ugliest long car and they nick-named it "the boat." But "the boat" always got us where we needed to go, Scotty always so kind. Scotty will be missed by many, but he is now with his parents and brother, Richard.
