“ Wanda was my ex mother inlaw. She was always so kind to me . She enjoyed spending time with family and friends. I enjoyed going to her house that she had in Springfield. She always made it feel like home. She will be missed by so many who knew and loved her

“ I first met Wanda and her husband when they helped deliver home communion to my mother. They were so kind and caring. Your father would read the Bible and offer a devotion and your mother would visit with Mother and me. In the last years she had lost your father and my husband died early. She offered kindness and understanding to me. I loved her spirit. I loved the way she always was beautifully turned out. I loved her steadfastness and determination to be in church all she could. She was a great model of a Christian life.
