“ Uncle Bill comes up in my conversations telling my daily friends and acquaintances how at family gatherings at grandpa and Elaine’s house how he would eat the fly’s and bugs he caught just to gross us kids out ! 😂 One memory when I visited in Cartage sleeping at auntie Evies and Uncle Bills we hear Uncle Bill yelling , “ Billy ,! Billy !, my cousin “ Billy “ , goes to his bedroom, I hear Uncle Bill say , “ Turn on the Fan !” Lmao ! Now he’s at peace back with Auntie Evie

“ My dad was amazing funny, loved to laugh, live life too it’s fullest. He loved fishing ,guns and entertaining. He was driven and bought a electronic equipment moving company before that was heard of. Landing his first big accounts with ABDick and Laurence Livermore lab. He installed first scanners at lucky store in redwood City ca. And first ATM in Redwood City CA. At B.O.A. . I was in aww of him . He loved his poker games and dancing with his wife Evelyn at the distillery in half Moon Bay after a hard week of work. But mostly he had unconditional love for us kids and his grandchildren. And I am proud to be his daughter, and that I married a man that reminded me of him. I love u daddy.RIP
