

William "Bill" Lewellyn Robertson

April 18, 1961 - November 9, 2013

William "Bill" Lewellyn Robertson Jr. 52, passed away November 9, 2013 in Carthage. Bill was born April 18, 1961 in Carthage to the late William Lewellyn Robertson Sr. and Barbara Robertson. Bill was a lifetime Carthage resident and worked for Eagle Pitcher in Seneca, Missouri for 30 years. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Carthage. Bill is survived by his mother Barbara Robertson and a longtime girlfriend Diane McWilliams of Carthage one Aunt Gay Briles and husband David of Romubuls MI. and several cousins. Bill is preceded by his Father October 4, 1980. Graveside services will be at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday November 13, 2013 at Park Cemetery. There will be an open visitation Tuesday November 12, 2013 at Ulmer Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at www.ulmerfh.com. Contributions can be made to the American Heart Association in care of Ulmer Funeral Home. Arrangements are under the direction of Ulmer Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

MF

“ William was such a kind hearted sweet person. I am so glad I got to know him and work with him. I will miss his sense of humor

Melanie Funk - November 12, 2013 at 09:25 PM

CH

“ I am very sorry for you loss. Willie was a great guy! He was a sweetheart to work with. Take comfort in the knowledge that he is with God now.

Cindy Hesson - November 12, 2013 at 08:26 PM

SZ

“ Always a friend and will be missed very much. Much love and sympathy goes to all his family and friends for this great loss. My heart goes out to you all.
I am glad I had the chance to work with William for a few years, and get to know him a bit better. May he now have the joy of peace in his new journey.

Stacey Zumwalt - November 12, 2013 at 07:29 PM

CR

“ Willy was a a good man. We sure do miss his whistling especially this time of year. He will be missed my sincerest condolences for your loss

Carla Ritter - November 12, 2013 at 01:43 PM