“ I remember the first time I met willie, uncle Willis and Amy had just moved back to missouri from Washington , we were pretty young but from that day forward willie and bonded as cousins and grew pretty close over our lives. Lots of memories when he lived in Calhoun mo. Willie wanted to be a basket ball pro and he practiced at it a lot and was pretty good. I would tell you what grandma Ruth Brickey told him about being a pro ball player but it wouldn't be politically correct.

I always remember him smiling and loving every day the lord blessed him with. He had just sent me a picture a few days ago while he was in the hospital with his breathing apparatus on and of course he had the same ole big happy smile ❤️
