

William Ed Jarett

August 7, 1952 - January 20, 2017

William “Ed” Jarett, 64, went peacefully to be with his Lord Friday, January 20, 2017 at his home. Ed was born August 7, 1952 in Taft, California. He was the son of Kenneth Edward Jarett and Betty Jane “Grimm” Jarett.

Ed lived throughout the midwest while working for the Missouri-Pacific Railroad and various other railroads including Missouri and Northern Arkansas Railroad, from which he retired in 2012 and settled in Carthage. He had a great sense of humor that is etched in everyone’s memory who knew him. He was loyal and loved and faithfully prayed for all of his family.

He is survived by his wife and 5 children: son Kenneth Edward Jarett, his wife Lisa and their children Jayden and Reese of Garnett, Kansas, daughter Tami Farmer and husband Brian, their children Eric, Joshua, Jacob, Matthew, Kylei of Owasso, Oklahoma, daughter Chere’ Kreighbaum, and husband Eddie, their children Chris, Jesca, Randi of Carl Junction, Missouri, daughter Stefani Brock of Carthage, her children Betsy, Zack, Dylan, Emalie of Carthage, daughter Amanda Kay Schulte and husband Jered, their children Isaac and Abby of Burlington, Kansas. “ My heart breaks for your loss. Mom enjoyed your visits to her in Long Beach. I'll miss the cousin I played with when we were little at grandma and grandpa LaDuke. And the amazing family man you became.
