“ Wilma's life brings back memories of those times living in Kendrick town when Bud, Ruth, Anna Faye and Herb visited frequently and us "kids" would be playing and causing all kinds of havoc. Recall cooking outside and making home made ice cream at many of these visits.

I recall Wilma having that beautiful personality and kind heart. So glad she successfully accomplished the many things she did in her life including raising her family and establishing a career. So sorry to hear she suffered with cancer in her later years.

Congratulations to Wilma and Ernal on 55 years of marriage. That is a God blessed union. My condolences to Ernal and the surviving family. I am blessed to have known Wilma and Ernal even though I lost contact with them over recent years.
